Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 14th April 1951

S.R.O. 163.—The following bye-laws for the collection and recovery of the tax on houses and buildings in the Faizabad Cantonment have been made by the Cantonment Board, Faizabad, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (3) of section 282 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), the same having been previously published, and approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Bye-laws for the regulation of the collection and recovery of the tax on houses and buildings in the Faizabad Cantonment.

1. When a building is situated in a compound and the building and the compound are ordinarily occupied by the same person, the annual rent of the building and compound shall be calculated jointly.

2. The Executive Officer shall cause to be prepared at the beginning of each year a demand and collection register of the tax on houses and buildings in the form attached to these Bye-laws in which the names of all persons liable to pay the tax shall be entered and shall cause such register to be corrected from time to time as may be required.

2. The Executive Officer shall cause to be prepared at the beginning of each Executive Officer or such member of the Cantonment Board or responsible officer as the Cantonment Board may appoint in this behalf. If any alteration is made in the demand the information or order in accordance with which it has been made shall be noted in the remarks column of the register.

4. The house tax shall be payable half-yearly in advance on first April and first October of each financial year to the Executive Officer at the Cantonment Office or to the Tax Collector appointed for the purpose who will grant receipts under his signature. Any person so desirous may pay the whole year's tax in advance.

5. No remission shall be made in respect of any house tax under section 76 of the Cantonment Act, 1924 unless notice in writing of the circumstances under which it is claimed has been given to the Cantonment Board within the first fifteen days after the period in respect of which remission is claimed.
